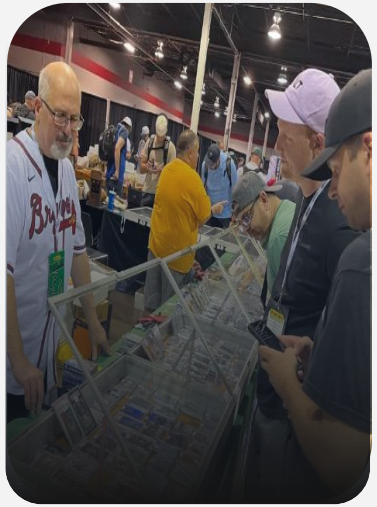
TYPES OF COLLECTORS & THEIR GOALS

Collectors are not a one-size-fits all – their motivations drive how they spend, engage, and evolve across different collecting journeys

NOVICE

New to the hobby and discovering what they enjoy.

Collecting is about learning, experimentation, and first hits.



HOBBYISTS

Driven by fun, nostalgia, and sentimental value.

Collecting is about enjoyment, community, and sharing – value appreciation is secondary.

INVESTORS

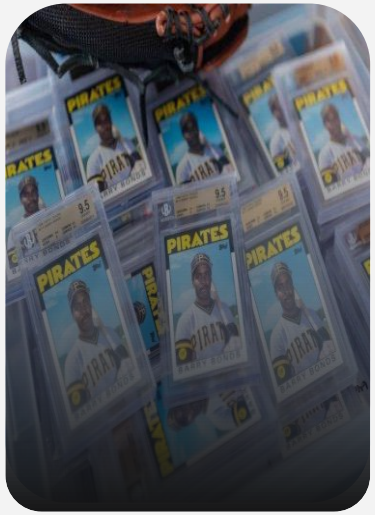
Focused on long-term value and portfolio growth.

Prioritize graded cards, rarity, and appreciation potential.

SET BUILDERS

Motivated by completion and organization.

Seek to finish full sets and enjoy the challenge of acquiring missing cards.



PLAYER / TEAM

Dedicated to a favorite player, team, or character.

Collect for passionate fandom, expertise, and personal connection.

FLIPPER

Opportunistic and transaction-driven.

Buy and sell cards for profit with less emotional attachment.

PROPOSED STRATEGY ON REWARD TYPES

Not every quest is equal. Reward tiers should scale with difficulty, scarcity, and commitment – ensuring exclusive cards and experiences retain prestige and long-term collector value

Level 1

Example Incentive: Digital Badges on Collect App

Objective:
Drive digital onboarding, collector engagement and support collecting behaviors

Quest Types
- Sticker Set
- Base Set
- Rookie/Prospect Chase
- Bronze Nine-Up

Why
- High-volume, repeatable & accessible quests
- Inclusive of lifelong quests
- Rewards reinforce collector identity ("Set Builder", "Prospector")

Level 2

Example Incentive: FanCash at milestones & Physical Badge

Objective:
Incentivize sustained engagement and reinvestment

Quest Types
- Rainbow
- Master Set
- PSA Set registry
- Silver Nine-Up

Why
- Requires meaningful time & spend
- Cash rewards encourage reinvestment without diluting card scarcity
- Physical badge sent for higher end quests

Level 3

Example Incentive: Exclusive Low Numbered Auto

Objective:
Reward complex achievements with tangible scarcity

Quest Types
- Nameplate
- Anime Set
- Rainbow (multi-product)
- Gold Nine-Up

Why
- Premier collector for Topps
- Exclusive cards must be clearly limited and equal to quest difficulty to preserve value

Level 4

Example Incentive: 1/1 Card & VIP experience

Objective:
Create aspirational VIP moments for the rarest accomplishments

Quest Types
- The Grail
- Three Kings
- Case Chase
- 1-of-1 Super Set (all subjects of a set)

Why
- These feats should be rare
- Experiential rewards reinforce status & deepen long-term brand loyalty

Future collector quests to add

2. Award winner pursuit – Example: Collect all MLB MVPs, Cy Young, & ROY in Gold /50
3. Nationality Run – Collect all base cards from a specific nationality for a product (e.g., all Japan players from Series 1)
